

Your group matters.

DISCUSSION GUIDE

- Icebreaker -

What was the most disastrous (and memorable) camping trip you have ever experienced?

1. How has the “myth” that women instinctively know how to love their husbands the way God intended affected your marriage or someone else's you know, and how could you work towards correcting that myth?
2. When talking about communication, Pastor Tom said that wives need to be careful not to be overly critical of their husbands for not being “feminine enough.” In your marriage, how do you and your spouse communicate differently and how can you affirm his/her communication style without expecting that it mirror your own? For you singles, how do you see styles differ between men and women, and how have you navigated those differences?
3. Pastor Tom said that God’s call for a woman to “submit to her husband as to the Lord” does not mean that she should treat her husband like her Lord, but instead means that a woman ought to submit to her husband as an act of submission to God, who created and ordered the family. How does this make it easier, whether married or single, to choose submission even when you may disagree or think you have a better idea? See Ephesians 5:21-24.
4. Read Ephesians 5:33 in several translations. In what practical and specific ways can you better “cherish/prize/treasure/respect” your husband this week? For those not married, what practical and specific ways do you see, or have you seen, for wives and husbands to cherish one another?
5. Pastor Tom said that “Marriage is not a 50/50 compromise, but a 100%/100% sacrifice,” just like Jesus, the “head” of the Church sacrificed Himself for her. For those who are married, how can each of you practice Christ-like sacrifice with your spouse, both this week and as a regular practice? As a single person, how has sacrifice been a part of your relationships?

Day One: Psalm 34

Day Two: Proverbs 3

Day Three: Judges 10

Day Four: Isaiah 34

Day Five: Acts 6

This Personal Guide has been adapted from Professor Grant Horner's Bible Reading System.

PERSONAL GUIDE

RIVERSIDE
CHURCH

FAMILY CIRCUS
WHO'S RUNNIN' THIS SHOW?

“DO YOU PROMISE...?” (PART 2)

NOV 20, 2022

PASTOR TOM LUNDEEN

MYRC.CHURCH

"DO YOU PROMISE...?" (PART 2)

Pastor Tom Lundeen

This is a series for everyone...(72% of Americans get married at _____).

The family is God's idea and creation (note Genesis 2) despite the family being under constant _____.

We all live in a society that objective studies have shown will benefit from _____ families (note Proverbs 24:3).

1. Wives, Love Your Husbands (note Titus 2:3-4)

We must be careful not to assume that simply because a person is a female that she automatically and _____ knows how to love her husband as God intends. This is a very dangerous _____ to swallow and will lead to very real problems, discouragement, and failure.

Why do wives...need to be _____...to love their husbands? Because:

- A. Women are _____, too - remember what marriage is...the union of 2 deeply _____, imperfect sinful individuals. You are just as _____ and bent toward sin as any man.
- B. Men are different from women - from birth, males and females are different (women on average speak _____ words a day, men _____). Be careful...not to be overly critical of your husband for not being _____ enough (note Philippians 2:3-4).

2. Wives...Honor Your Husbands

To honor and respect means to value...to _____ the value of. A major part of raising your husband's value is found in the most misunderstood, feared, and misused theological principle in the New Testament (the dreaded "s" word = _____).

Note Ephesians 5:21-22. God has appointed the husband to be the _____ leader of your family and relationship.

...the Bible doesn't tell wives to _____ like it tells children and slaves to...

...this is instead to freely offer yourself to your husband's leadership - not forced, _____, or manipulated, but an act of your free will.

...as to the Lord...does not put a woman's husband in the _____ of the Lord, but shows rather that a woman ought to submit to her husband as an act of submission to the Lord. (Liefeld)

Note Ephesians 5:23 = head = _____. ...according to God's design, the man is the source of the woman's being; they were created for each other and _____...just as Jesus Christ is the source of the church's life. (Brauch)

Note Ephesians 5:24. The nature of the church's submission to Jesus is that the church freely assumes Jesus' leadership by humbly responding to His self-giving, sacrificial servanthood and His continuing empowering and _____ presence...it has nothing to do with external _____ or coercion. (Brauch)

Submission becomes a battleground and a tool of _____ and control when used or resisted by insecure people who want their own way.

3. Wives...Cherish Your Husbands

Note Ephesians 5:33b. How can you prize and treasure your husband?

- A. Recognize your husband cannot meet _____ you have - spiritual leadership doesn't equal _____. There is no one person who can meet all of our needs except Jesus.
- B. Give him honest _____ - ...honestly ask yourself how much you express admiration to your husband (and about your husband _____) as contrasted to how much complaints and criticism _____ your words to and about your husband.

WHO'S RUNNING THIS SHOW?

- God intended your relationship with your husband to be something good, that gives joy to him and you (note Proverbs 18:22; 12:4a).
- Marriage is not a 50/50 compromise, but a 100%/100% _____ (note Proverbs 12:4b).
- Be a woman who keeps her promises and _____ God's promises (note Proverbs 31:10-11, 28-30).
- Some suggestions (from the book Love and Respect): Praise his good decisions. Be _____ if he makes a bad decision. Never, in word or body language, put down his job or how much he makes. You sometimes let him fix things and _____ his solutions. Apologize and _____ you were wrong. Allow him to dream as he did when you were courting.

"DO YOU PROMISE...?" (PART 2)

Pastor Tom Lundeen

This is a series for everyone...(72% of Americans get married at least once). The family is God's idea and creation (note Genesis 2) despite the family being under constant assault...

We all live in a society that objective studies have shown will benefit from healthy families (note Proverbs 24:3).

1. Wives, Love Your Husbands (note Titus 2:3-4)

We must be careful not to assume that simply because a person is a female that she automatically and instinctively knows how to love her husband as God intends. This is a very dangerous myth to swallow and will lead to very real problems, discouragement, and failure.

Why do wives...need to be trained...to love their husbands? Because:

- A. Women are sinners, too - remember what marriage is...the union of 2 deeply flawed, imperfect sinful individuals. You are just as prone and bent toward sin as any man.
- B. Men are different from women - from birth, males and females are different (women on average speak 20,000 words a day, men 7,000). Be careful...not to be overly critical of your husband for not being feminine enough (note Philippians 2:3-4).

2. Wives...Honor Your Husbands

To honor and respect means to value...to raise the value of. A major part of raising your husband's value is found in the most misunderstood, feared, and misused theological principle in the New Testament (the dreaded "s" word = submit).

Note Ephesians 5:21-22. God has appointed the husband to be the spiritual leader of your family and relationship.

...the Bible doesn't tell wives to obey like it tells children and slaves to...

...this is instead to freely offer yourself to your husband's leadership - not forced, coerced, or manipulated, but an act of your free will.

...as to the Lord...does not put a woman's husband in the place of the Lord, but shows rather that a woman ought to submit to her husband as an act of submission to the Lord. (Liefeld)

Note Ephesians 5:23 = head = source. ...according to God's design, the man is the source of the woman's being; they were created for each other and belong together...just as Jesus Christ is the source of the church's life. (Brauch)

Note Ephesians 5:24. The nature of the church's submission to Jesus is that the church freely assumes Jesus' leadership by humbly responding to His self-giving, sacrificial servanthood and His continuing empowering and nurturing presence...it has nothing to do with external control or coercion. (Brauch)

Submission becomes a battleground and a tool of manipulation and control when used or resisted by insecure people who want their own way.

3. Wives...Cherish Your Husbands

Note Ephesians 5:33b. How can you prize and treasure your husband?

- A. Recognize your husband cannot meet every need you have - spiritual leadership doesn't equal perfection. There is no one person who can meet all of our needs except Jesus.
- B. Give him honest admiration - ...honestly ask yourself how much you express admiration to your husband (and about your husband to others) as contrasted to how much complaints and criticism dominate your words to and about your husband.

WHO'S RUNNING THIS SHOW?

- God intended your relationship with your husband to be something good, that gives joy to him and you (note Proverbs 18:22; 12:4a).
- Marriage is not a 50/50 compromise, but a 100%/100% sacrifice (note Proverbs 12:4b).
- Be a woman who keeps her promises and follows God's promises (note Proverbs 31:10-11, 28-30).
- Some suggestions (from the book Love and Respect): Praise his good decisions. Be gracious if he makes a bad decision. Never, in word or body language, put down his job or how much he makes. You sometimes let him fix things and applaud his solutions. Apologize and admit you were wrong. Allow him to dream as he did when you were courting.